

The opportunity for public comment on the proposed changes has been totally inadequate. The proposed changes are designed to serve corporate interests, not the public interest. Please retain the current ownership rules.